BIOGRAPHY

Prior to joining Scarinci Hollenbeck, Ms. Nobile was associated with a Cedar Knolls, New Jersey law firm where she focused her practice on insurance defense litigation. Prior to that, she was associated with a Red Bank, New Jersey law firm focusing on plaintiff's personal injury law.

After graduating law school, Ms. Nobile clerked for the Honorable Dennis R. O'Brien, J.S.C. in Monmouth County, New Jersey. She assisted in drafting Amicus Curiae briefs on behalf of the New Jersey State Bar Association on Smith v. Datla, Heredia v. Piccininni and Rodriguez v. Raymours Furniture Co. All three briefs were selected to receive the Amicus Curiae award by the New Jersey State Bar Association.

Liana earned her Juris Doctor from Seton Hall University School of Law in Newark, NJ. She earned her undergraduate degree, summa cum laude, from Monmouth University in West Long Branch, NJ where she majored in History.
