BIOGRAPHY

Lena K. Kim is a member of the firm's Government & Education law practice group where she focuses her practice on the representation of school boards, administrators, and more in various Labor & Employment and Litigation matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Kim served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Lourdes I. Santiago, J.S.C., in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Hudson Vicinage. During her clerkship, Ms. Kim worked on cases in the Family Division, primarily focusing on the Children in Court docket as well as matters involving domestic violence, adoption, and Special Immigrant Juvenile Status. Ms. Kim also received mediation training and served as a Court-appointed mediator for matrimonial and non-dissolution matters. Ms. Kim regularly mediated disputes regarding child custody, parenting time, child support, and relocation.

Ms. Kim received her Juris Doctor from Rutgers Law School in Newark, NJ. During her time there, Ms. Kim was an Associate Managing Editor of the Rutgers University Law Review and a Member of the Moot Court Board. Ms. Kim served as a clinical law student in the Rutgers Immigrant Rights Clinic, where she assisted detained clients seek asylum before the Board of Immigration Appeals, and served as a Research and Writing Assistant to Professor Anjum Gupta in drafting an amicus brief regarding a critical dispute in refugee law. Ms. Kim also served as a teaching fellow for the Minority Student Program and completed a judicial internship for the Honorable Jose L. Linares, U.S.D.J., United States District Court for the District of New Jersey.

Ms. Kim earned her Bachelor of Arts degree from New York University in New York, NY, where she majored in English & American Literature with a minor in East Asian Studies.
