BIOGRAPHY

Samantha M. Monteleone is a member of Scarinci Hollenbeck's Government and Education Law practice group, where she focuses her practice on the representation of school boards, administrators, and more in various Labor & Employment and Litigation matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Monteleone served as a judicial law clerk for the Honorable James R. Paganelli, Lead Judge in Children in Court, Family Part, in Newark, NJ. During her clerkship, Ms. Monteleone managed the Children in Court docket and served as a mediator for various Family Law issues, including child support, spousal support, custody, visitation and more.

Ms. Monteleone earned her Juris Doctor from Seton Hall University School of Law in Newark, NJ. During her law school career, Ms. Monteleone worked at a prominent Somerset County law firm, assisting with Education and Family Law matters. While in Seton Hall Law School's Family Law Clinic, Ms. Monteleone represented clients as a student attorney. She also interned for the Essex County Prosecutor's Office, Appellate Section, as well as Essex-Newark Legal Services, Family Part. Additionally, Ms. Monteleone worked pro bono for Kids in Need of Defense, a national organization that provides legal counsel to unaccompanied immigrant and refugee children.

Ms. Monteleone earned her undergraduate degree in English and History from Seton Hall University, while serving as an AmeriCorps program leader.
